NOTES	The Exoex is a classic transitional console table with an intriguing symmetrical X-O-X shape. Finished in a hand-dyed charcoal colored parchment the base is meticulously mantled. The unique shape of the base makes the mantling process very precise and labor intensive. A hand poured resin glaze is applied adding a luxurious shine while magnifying the parchment details. Please inquire for pricing, lead time and other available finishes. Parchment colors may vary up to 20%.
