THE ART ISSUE | MAY 2019

The Ring Cycle. True to form, Tiffany & Co. has designed jewelry “down to a T” with its terrifically timeless T True wide ring. Available in 18k gold, white gold or rose gold ($1,350), the architecturally elegant ring is good on its own or paired with any number of pieces from the collection. ## MUST HAVES BY DAVID NASH

French Twist. Inspired by the mesh totes found in Aligre, the trendy food market in the 12th Arrondissement, Goyard has designed a phenomenal re-usable shopping bag of the same name

— Aligre. Constructed of handmade raffia mesh braid with leather, beechwood and Goyardine canvas in turquoise, the new classic comes in at $2,685. Pair it with their Foulard No. 3 ($615). An homage to the trunk-making roots of the Maison, the scarf has elements of the marquage personalization and historic address of the Paris flagship at 233 Saint Honoré. Available at Goyard San Francisco, 118 Grant Avenue.

Magnificent Creatures. If you're on the hunt for unique bar storage, look no further than Sylvan's limited edition Parchment Rhino Bar. Mantled in a charcoal-color high-gloss resin glazed parchment, several strategically placed compartments open to reveal large storage areas and a brass-clad workstation complete with ice bucket, utensil set and slide-out serving shelf. This beast of bar (78" w x 23.75" d x 39.25" h) has plenty of animal magnetism. Price upon request. sylvansf.com

Up Against a Wall. CW Stockwell, the company that developed and has produced Martinique — the banana leaf wallpaper made famous by the Beverly Hills Hotel — since 1942, recently relaunched with an array of new colorways of the iconic wall covering, including navy ($288 per 5-yard roll). The 114-year-old brand has also released a selection of new patterns with motifs pulled from the archives, such as Million Flowers ($238 per 5-yard roll). Designer/trade pricing is available. Think Pink. Summer is here, and rosé season is in full swing. Thanks to the Côte de Provence Rosés from Château d'Esclans, there are two perfectly palatable options: Whispering Angel ($24), which Serena Sutcliffe, head of Sotheby's International wine department, described as being “loaded onto yachts on the Côte d'Azur and consumed in quantity by connoisseurs,” and Rock Angel ($35), described by The Wine Spectator as “a pure and unadorned style.” esclans.com

BEAUTY

SUN-KISSED

BY NATASHA CHALENKO

Radiant and carefree, nothing exudes youthfulness more than a face slightly touched by gentle sun rays. Surprisingly, you'd need only a very small selection of products to create this desirable look. The key is to choose a translucent “barely there” bronzer, add a few posh finishing touches, and voilà — you can look as if you've been bathed in a golden light.

Très Chic, Très Chanel. If a bronzer fairy existed, she'd deliver Bronzer and Highlighter Duo from Chanel Cruise Makeup Collection by Lucia Pica. This versatile compact features a delicate mattifying bronzer to enhance and define contours, paired with a pearlescent highlighter to sculpt the face. Actually, the entire collection is an absolute hit, with my favorites, such as Top Coat Eyeshadow in Lunaire ($36) and Longwear Nail Colour in Afterglow ($28). Chanel Bronze et Lumière Bronzer and Highlighter Duo. Available in Clair and Medium, $70; chanel.com

Sultry Lips. Tom Ford is known as a king of ultra-sleek luxe, and this season's Soleil collection once again proves this status. The Lip Blush, flaked in glistening 24k gold, envelops the lips in a sheer yet intensely moisturizing glossy layer, then instantly transforms into a universally flattering flush of pink stain. This balmy lipstick feels as decadently rich as its gilded case looks. Tom Ford Soleil Lip Blush, $55; tomford.com

Shimmery Touch. The light-catching golden nail lacquer, Sun Glow, from Dior's Wild Earth collection, is inspired by the desert sun. It can be worn alone or as a top coat to add an iridescent dimension to your favorite polish. This nail-care formula offers protection against the harshness of sand and salt water. Dior Vernis in Sun Glow, $28; dior.com
